ASK ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I'll wager you have never received a letter like this betting it will never appear in print.

Three weeks ago we committed our 15-year-old son to a state mental hospital because we don't have the money to give him the special treatment he needs.

On his 11th day the boy's father and I went to visit him. He told us he had been put in solitary for three days because he tried to escape. Three days later he did escape, along with five others. That same evening he telephoned us and asked us to come and get him. He begged us not to send him back to the hospital but we did anyway. We thought it would be best for him. Now we're not sure we did the right thing.

The boy's room is bare of all furniture. It has a concrete floor and he sleeps on a mattress. I know mental patients used to be treated like animals but I thought that was back in the Dark Ages.

I'd have to be sicker than he is to believe this is proper treatment for a boy with a sick mind. What can you do about it, Ann Landers? — FAITH SHATTERED

Dear Faith Shattered: I can print your letter—and here it is. I am not printing the name of your state, however. Instead I am asking every person with a social conscience to ask himself, "Could this happen in MY state?"

Kansas readers don't need to check. Thanks to the Menningers you have the finest state hospital in the U. S. Many other states should hang their heads in shame. How about YOURS?

Dear Ann Landers: My husband always had a pretty hot temper. Recently he seemed to be getting better and I was very pleased with the way things were going — until last night. We got home from a party and he started to criticize me for helping the hostess serve the refreshments. He said I was no maid and I should have remained seated with the guests.

All of a sudden he yelled, "Pack my suitcase," so I did. The next thing I knew he took the suitcase, hit me over the head with it and yelled, "So you want me to leave, do you? Well, I'm staying right here!"

If a wife does as she's told she gets clobbered. If she doesn't she gets clobbered. Either way it's no good. I need advice. — CANT WIN

Dear Can't: Tell your husband a hit over the head is called assault and battery and if he doesn't lay off he may be called upon to explain his extraordinary behavior to a judge.

Dear Ann Landers: A close friend of mine who is 18 years old insists she is madly in love with a boy 19. The boy has been in the hospital for six months with rheumatic fever. He also has migraine headaches. Ever since I've known him (10 years) he has had some physical complaint which kept him out of school, away from work, or apart from the crowd.

Since the boy has come home from the hospital Christine is at his side constantly. She has dedicated herself to making his life as easy and pleasant.

I realize the boy is sick, but since Christine is smothering him with attention and service he is making no effort to get well. Please tell me what kind of a life this girl will have if they marry. — HATE TO SEE IT HAPPEN

Dear Hate To See It: Some women pick invalids because they get a feeling of personal worth out of sacrificing themselves. Noble? Well — to a point, but it can mask a martyr complex which is pretty sick stuff.

If Christine marries the boy she had better plan on being a lifetime nurse and probably the breadwinner as well.

What is French kissing? Is it wrong? Who should set the necking limits — the boy or the girl? Can a shotgun wedding succeed? Read Ann Landers' booklet, "Teen-age Sex — Ten Ways to Cool It." Send 50c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hazard's beefy line and the addition of Bulldog cager Jim Rose complete, smothered the Whitesburg Yellowjackets Friday night at Collins Field to a tune of a 33-0 as speedster Keith Reynolds rolled up a 100 yards rushing.

The victory, second EKMC win in a row for the Hazard eleven, brings the Bulldogs record to 3-2 while Whitesburg suffered their third setback in five tilts.

Scoring in the first, second and fourth quarters, the Bulldogs rushed for 171 yards on the ground while holding the Yellowjackets to 104. The decisive margin came in the passing department as the Hazard canines rolled up 228 yards via air while Whitesburg completed but one pass for 4 yards.

BULLDOG DEFENSE SHINES

Hazard's defense, spearheaded by O. J. Rowe, C. V. Cooper, Gordon Benning, Butch Morgan, Larry Combs, and Freddy Hogg, held the Bulldogs opponents scoreless for the second straight week as Hazard linemen took complete charge of the game.

Hazard opened up early but a fumble by David Baker after a fine 23-yard sprint to the Whitesburg 30 gave the Yellowjackets the football and stopped the Bulldogs' first drive.

WHITESBURG TRIES

Whitesburg tried their luck but received a punting situation three plays later. Sophomore Jack Cox dropped the ball a second when attempting to punt as big O. J. Rowe blocked the punt and end Freddy Hogg raced to the end zone and recovered the pigskin for a 6-0 Hazard lead. Rowe added the point after with 7-40 left and Hazard commanded a 7-0 lead in the first period.

Whitesburg initiated a drive on their own 19 and moved to the Whitesburg 45 eight plays before senior Gordon Benning intercepted a Bobby Blair pass on the Hazard 47.

BULLDOGS MARCH

Marching 53 yards in six plays, David Baker cracked over the goal line with 11:56 remaining in the half that gave the Bulldogs a 13-0 lead. Rowe again kicked the conversion and Hazard increased their margin to 14-0. Senior halfback Keith Reynolds collected 42 of the 53 yards in four carries.

Jimmy Rose warmed up his rocket arm mid-way in the second stanza and engineered a 70 yard touchdown drive that required only three plays.

ROSE TO REYNOLDS

Rose hit Reynolds on a down and out pattern for 21 yards and a first down on the Whitesburg 49. Reynolds then hit the middle for a one yard pick-up. After a 5 yard penalty for motion in backfield, Rose backed into the strong Hazard passing pocket found his receiver downfield, and shot a 53-yard scoring pass to end Freddy Hogg. Rowe added the extra point and Hazard went ahead 21-0 with 7:20 left in the first half.

DEFENSE STARS

Defense played the major role in the third period as C. V. Cooper and Charles Rucker received fumbles for Hazard only to have the third quarter the Bulldogs chalked up 46 yards and six points in nine plays with David Baker picking up the last four yards with 9:30 left in the contest. Rowe added the fourth extra point for a 28-0 lead.

A Houston Hogg to Freddy Hogg aerial was good for 23 yards and a TD late in the contest to give the final score of 34-0 as a pass conversion of Rowe to Kenny Johnson was completed, but nullified by a backfield in motion penalty. The second try for a pass conversion failed.

Bulldogs Face Tough Belfry

Astor "Cat" Sizemore's Hazard Bulldogs face their first real test of the 1965 football season Friday night when Al Viperman's Belfry Pirates invade Bulldog territory.

Belfry, unbeaten in four starts, is in high hopes of winning the Class AA, Second District championship and the EKMC crown all in one contest. Only one obstacle, Hazard, stands in the path of the Pirates.

Hazard, after a 28-7 spanking from the state's top team in Hopkinsville, has reeled off two shutouts against Napier (33-0) and Whitesburg (34-0).

Hazard has improved remarkably since their opening game with Hop'town and their defense rose to the occasion during the past two weeks. But the Bulldogs will have to give a 120 percent effort Friday night if they are to cope with Viperman's rough and tough Pirates.

Belfry shocked previously unbeaten Cumberland over the weekend with a sound 32-0 thrashing as star quarterback Bob Burgett figured in three of the five touchdowns. Burgett tossed two TDs of 18 and 21 yards and scored one on a 21 yard sprint.

Only one opponent, Whitesburg 55-13, has been able to reach the scoreboard against Belfry's almost invincible defense. With star Bulldog cager Jim Rose in football gear, the Hazard backfield may now be ready for all comers. Rose played in his first game of the season Friday night and responded with 172 yards passing and one 53-yarder to Freddy Hogg for a touchdown.

Sizemore can now put 192 pound junior Houston Hogg to the fullback position with Rose at quarterback and speedster Keith Reynolds and talented David Baker at the halfbacks.

Hazard has won all District titles except one since the playoffs were begun in 1959 and all of the EKMC titles except two but the Bulldogs will have to perform their best this week if they are to continue dominance of the EKMC and Class AA, District 2.

Napier Loses Fifth Straight

M. C. Napier went down to its fifth straight loss and continues to remain scoreless as Elkhorn City trounced the Navajos 31-0.

The Navajos just fell apart against the Cougars in a game which local fans thought the Napier eleven may hit the win column. Navajo Coach Charles Hall was very disappointed with his team's performance. He switched Calvin Beatty to quarterback in attempt to bolster his offensive attack for the Elkhorn City game, but the lack of blocking remained the major problem for Napier.

Top Cage Teams Meet At Ashland

The Ashland Invitation Basketball Tournament has grouped quite an array of cage teams for the 1965 AIT in their eleventh annual tourney.

Included in the tournament are defending champion Louisville Male, Hazard, Mt. Sterling, Newport, Harrison County, McDowell, and host Ashland. Three other Eastern Kentucky teams will be picked at a later date.

The ten-team tourney is set for December 27-30 at Paul Blazer Gymnasium.

Benning Draws Comment

Hazard Coach Astor Sizemore was very pleased with the performance of JIMMY ROSE who played in his first game of the season Friday night.

"He's a real fine boy and that releases Hogg (Houston) to the fullback and halfback positions where we need help," commented Sizemore.

He also had high praise for freshman Charles Rucker who picked up four yards in his only carry of the game and intercepted a Whitesburg pass.

"He's a real good prospect," quoted Sizemore, "and we can use a boy like him."

BENNING

COACH SIZEMORE

Gordon Benning, the Hazard defensive whiz, was all over the field Friday night and Sizemore was one of the first to commend the boy on his fine performance.

"Gordon has been our best 'defensive man' all year," said the Hazard tutor. Benning was picked as Player of the Game against M. C. Napier week before last.

Kentucky Grid Teams Have 4-2-1

Unable to solve the "Side Saddle T" formation the M. C. Napier Navajos dropped their fifth straight grid contest of the year Friday night to the Elkhorn City Cougars 31-0 at Napier Field.

Elkhorn City won the opening kickoff and used only three plays to take a 6-0 lead with Bob Matney going four yards for the score.

Napier got it hands on the ball for the first time with Freshmen Calvin Beatty at the controls.

Kenny Ballard hit the middle of the Cougar defense for 6 yards on the first offensive play called by Beatty.

George Ballard picked up two and brother Kenny added two more for the first down.

Jim McAlarnis was called on for the first time but managed only one yard against the battling Cougars.

After two more short gains the Navajos were forced to punt with Ken Finnison getting away a 40 yard kick.

Elkhorn City took over on its own 28 yard stripe for its first sustained drive.

Buck Ratliff slammed the Napier line for 7 yards and B. J. Elswick added eight more for the first down on the Cougar 38.

Four plays later Matney added his second touchdown of the evening on a 14 yard sprint around end to give the Pike Cougars a 12-0 lead.

Napier got the pigskin back on its own four yard line late in this second period.

Beatty called on McAlarnis for most of the running in this series as the fleet halfback was getting valuable yardage against the Cougars.

Coach Charles Hall jerked starting halfback George Ballard at this point and put senior Bobby Parsons in at the half back slot.

Parsons had been the regular quarterback until Beatty took his job during last week's practice.

It took only three plays for Parsons to prove that he liked

The fourth period saw Napier's offense show signs of coming to life as Jim McAlarnis and Calvin Beatty ripped the Cougars for some good gains.

Mac had back to back gains of 11 and 21 yards while Beatty came up with two runs of 20 and 16 yards.

Three fumbles by Napier ended three chances to score the first TD of the season by the Redskins.

Each fumble came when the Navajos were sailing on smooth waters toward pay dirt.

Leading ground gainer for Napier was McAlarnis with 97 yards as the co-captain played perhaps his best game of the year.

Beatty had 40 yards rushing, Kenny Ballard added 24 on the ground and Parsons got 34 for his night's work.

Beatty tried three passes hitting on one, an eight yarder to Tommy Brock.

Finnison punted four times for the Navajos averaging 40 yards per kick.

Napier now begins preparations for Thursday's game with the Whitesburg Yellowjackets.

The contest had been set for Friday night but due to conflicting dates with Hazard the Navajos have changed to Thursday night.

Hazard has a home date with Belfry this weekend.

We all feel Mr. Johnson is an excellent principal and does all he can to maintain high standards of Buckhorn School.

"Habitat Boxes! What's that?" someone asked in the lunchroom. Well, in brief, habitat boxes are boxes showing terrain, plants, and animals that can be found in various geographical regions. The regions represented by the boxes in the lunchroom are deserts, swamps, jungles, mountains, lakes, etc.

The habitat boxes are a project of Mr. Minter's General Science Class. The students had to gather the materials for the boxes themselves. The materials consisted of magazine pictures, bark, sticks, sticks, tree limbs, burrs, pine cones, moss, etc. Alvin Miller (bless his brave soul) climbed out on the edge of a cliff to gather the moss for his box.

Several local items were used to stimulate plant life on geographical regions from which no materials were available. For example, chestnut burrs were used for cactus and tumble weeds, and twigs were used to represent trees.

If pictures could not be obtained for the background, the students used pastels to prepare the meeting.

The science students are to be congratulated on their project. If any student has not seen the habitat boxes, we suggest that you see them this week. They are not only attractive but are educational as well.

September 21, Mr. Louis H. McCadie, is coming to talk to the Journalism Class.
